

Ocoee Region Firefighter Safety & Leadership Symposium

Sponsored by the Cleveland Fire Department and the Bradley County Fire Department

Thursday, March 5, 2009 and Friday, March 6, 2009

Life Care Professional Development Building

3570 Keith Street, Cleveland, Tennessee

The purpose of the symposium is to provide quality safety and leadership training to current mid-level and chief officers as well as future fire service leaders. The Symposium is approved for 12 hours of "specialized" credit through the Tennessee Firefighting Commission. The Tennessee Fire and Codes Academy will issue certificates to attendees who participate in the symposium.

Registration $25 / Person

Registration also includes Lunch on Friday!

Speakers.....

District Chief John Sullivan, Worcester Fire Department

Kelvin J. Cochran, Fire Chief, Atlanta Fire Department

Deputy Chief Billy Goldfeder, Loveland-Symmes Fire Department

Host Hotel: Holiday Inn Mountain View, I-75 / Exit 25
I-75 at State Route 60 / 25th Street, Cleveland, Tennessee

Hotel Front Desk: 423-472-1500 | Hotel Fax: 423-479-5962

Special Symposium Rate $59.95/night (includes 15% discount in the hotel restaurant if you show your room key. Use the name "Ocoee Region" when making reservations.

Cutoff date for the special rate is February 5th 2009

Seats are LIMITED!!! To register, Contact.... Chief Dewey Woody or the Bradley County Fire Department at 423-728-7067 or e-mail bradleychief1@msn.com and reference registering for seminar. Registration closes on February 5th 2009 or when the classroom is full.

Additional Sponsors are needed to keep the registration affordable – Contact Chief Chuck Atchley at chuckatchley@bellsouth.net (423-476-6713) for information on symposium sponsorships.

Ocoee Region Firefighter Safety & Leadership Symposium